

Media Statement: Annual Training and Texas State Guard

From: The Texas State Guard
Corporal Jason Hunter | 6th Brigade
PAO Texas State Guard

Annual Training Takes on a Community Service Focus for Soldiers

Dripping Springs, TX - In a remarkable display of community commitment, the Soldiers of the Texas State Guard, 3rd Battalion 6th Brigade, are gearing up for their 2024 Annual Training with a unique twist—dedicating their efforts to a Community Service Event. This year, they are partnering with the Hays County Emergency Management team to provide essential support in traffic control and communications during the anticipated total eclipse event on April 8th, 2024.

As thousands of tourists are expected to flood the charming town of Dripping Springs, TX, to witness the celestial spectacle, the Texas State Guard (TXSG) is poised to play a crucial role in ensuring the safety and smooth flow of the event. This marks a significant moment for the town and the state, as the TXSG aligns its resources to support the Hays County Emergency Management team and contribute to the success of this historical occasion.

"The TXSG stands ready to serve and support our community, becoming an integral part of this Texas historical event," stated Brigadier General Sheridan, Commanding, 6th Brigade, Texas State Guard. The Soldiers are dedicated to upholding the safety and well-being of both locals and visitors alike, exemplifying the spirit of community service that defines the Texas State Guard.